

Keep your fingers crossed...

Wednesday, 03 March 2010

You know how when you really want something really really badly it almost hurts...

Well today I went for a job interview, 5 kms from home, hours - 10am to 4pm, 4 days a week, fantastic law firm.

I want this job so much, but I have a feeling that my qualifications (I've only worked in Qld) didn't really impress the interviewer.

Please keep your fingers, legs everything crossed for me.
